"I was talking about you," Anansi said.
"You see this branch?"
My wife, Aso, said that it was longer than you are.
I told her she was wrong.
This branch could not be longer than the greatest snake in the world.
But my wife is very stubborn.

She said I should come see you and find out once and for all."
"Put the branch next to me,"
said Onini. "I will stretch out
to my full length.
Then we will see who is telling the truth."
Anansi put down the palm branch,
and Onini leaned against it.
