The most unusual feature of a kangaroo is its strong muscular tail, which it uses in different ways. This large tail acts as a third leg when hopping about. The kangaroo raises its tail for steering and balance when bounding fast on its large back legs. Its short front legs are used like crutches with the tail to balance while hopping slowly. When it stops moving it rests on its tail like a prop, then uses it to push off and start jumping. Injury to a kangaroo's tail is extremely serious, as the animal can't hop with its tail lifted off the ground. Moving about to search for food becomes impossible.

LET'S GO, BRONCOS!

Peyton Manning retired after the 2016 Super Bowl. The Broncos have not made the playoffs since then. But the team's fans have plenty of reasons to be hopeful for the future.

The Broncos finished with a 7-10 record in 2021. While the team struggled on offense, they had one of the best defenses in the league. Only two teams allowed fewer points to their opponents than the Broncos did.

Safety Justin Simmons leads the team's talented defense. He finished the 2021 season with five interceptions and 80 tackles. Cornerback Patrick Surtain II was the team's first round draft pick in 2021. He shined as a rookie and had four interceptions.

She pulled out her notebook and reviewed her ingredients again. She realized she had forgotten one of the most important: H<sub>2</sub>O! She grabbed a bottle of water and poured. Then she stirred and smelled it. It was perfect! Now all she needed was someone to help her test it out.

"DAD!" she called.

Imani asked her dad to sit in a kitchen chair. Then she parted his hair into two sections. She put her shampoo made from natural ingredients on the right side. On the left side she put the store-bought shampoo.

When she was done, she recorded the results in her notebook. Now she was getting somewhere.

"Do you need anything charged today?" my dad asked as he got ready to go into the office. He had power at work, so he could take my laptop to charge up if I wanted him to. But what was the point? I couldn't access my Google Classroom without Wi-Fi.

"No, I'm good," I said. "Are you going to buy batteries?"

We had three camping lanterns and a radio, but my dad had forgotten to stock up on batteries for an emergency.

"I'll get some today. Hopefully. There might have been a run on them. I know it's almost impossible to find a generator these days."

"A what?"

"A generator. Some of the people in our
