"Oh! I didn't mean Red Delicious apples. I meant delicious as in YUMMY! My snout led me straight to this basket of apples."
 "What did you do then?"
 "I went hog wild and made a pig of myself."
 The captain flashed me his "no-way-I'm-a-mouse" look.
 "No way indeed!" I nodded.
 "Everyone knows an apple a day keeps the doctor away. I figured I'd be as healthy as an ox if I ate the whole basket. Instead, my nummy hurts."

"Any idea who left the apples and why?" I asked.
 "Everyone's been mad because I recently beefed up pen security."
 "Everyone?" I questioned. "Who's everyone?"
 "Sweet Pea, the new piglet next door, Herman the Vermin, that dirty rat, and Hot Dog. They've all been sneaking into my pen and stealing my food!" oinked Porcini. "Look at me! I'm skinnier than a string bean."
 I looked. Porcini was a little green but he didn't look anything like a string bean.
