Secret Code Master

You are on a secret mission and must send an urgent message to your team.
You don't want anyone but your team members to know what it says.

Secret Code Example:

s	n	a	i	l
19	14	1	9	12

a	b	c	d	e	f	g	h	i	j	k	l	m	n	o	p	q	r	s	t	u	v	w	x	y	z
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26

Create your secret code for each letter in the pink box below. You can use numbers, letters, or symbols to represent each letter of the alphabet.

a	b	c	d	e	f	g	h	i	j	k	l	m	n	o	p	q	r	s	t	u	v	w	x	y	z

Now write a secret message in the bottom row of each box below using your secret code. See if a friend or family member can decode it in the top rows.

Desert Island Life

Day in the Life

What do you think is the most fascinating time in history? Was it way back in the Middle Ages? Or was it a more recent time in modern history? Think about what life was like during that time period and write about it in the journal below. Include details about your activities, chores, clothes, and education.

My Day

Journal writing area with 12 horizontal lines.

Learning Log

Every year you grow and learn new things. Think back to the most important thing you've learned in each grade. Follow the green line and describe what you learned. Then think forward to what you hope to learn in the future.

A Tale of Two Places

Pick two different types of places to live. They could be different states, a big city and a small town, or specific types of shelters such as a high-rise apartment and a cabin in the woods. Your choice. Use sentences that begin with If and But to compare and contrast the two places.

My Person of the Year

At the end of every year many magazines and newspapers honor a person who has done something especially important. Think back on your own past year. What person stands out as someone who inspired you or helped you? Honor them by drawing their picture, sharing their name, and explaining what they did.
